

To whom it may concern,

We opened our Diner in October of 2014 it was very busy and seemed as if we weren't going to have any cash flow issues. Wrong! We made the mistake that many new small business owners make and that is to not have enough working capital to get through the expenses that come with opening a new business.

I started to panic so much that it affected everything in my life. I reached out to some businesses that came under the guise of a friendly here to help you scenario. They offered all kinds of help and at first they did but when you quickly realize that the daily payments were draining your cash flow I was back to square one. So I took another to pay for the loan I had out and then another to pay for that one. It was like quick sand. It didn't help it just made things worse. I called and tried to negotiate cheaper rates and payments but they weren't having it. The once friendly here to help loan sharks had me and I thought I hadn't anywhere to go.

I stumbled across Corporate Turnaround and was very skeptical that they could even help me. My trust in any company at this time was very low. I submitted an inquiry that day and they called within 1 hour. They talked with me and answered any questions that I had. They explained how tough it was going to be that I had to listen to them and stay strong. I can't tell you how right they were the first 6 months where hell collectors were calling all the time threatening me and my employees and no matter how I tried to avoid them they would get through time to time and believe me they were far from respectful. As time went by the harassment lessened and the phone calls were almost non-existent.

Anthony [redacted] was always there to listen give advice on how to cope and make it through this time. Before I knew it they had settled a few cases and there finally seemed like a light at the end of a tunnel. Two years later I am finally debt free and my business is still alive and kicking even stronger than before!

I highly suggest Corporate Turnaround to anyone in distress financially these guys will walk you through the process because they truly care about their customers.

Thank you to all who helped me through this time you are greatly appreciated!

Sincerely,

Owner [redacted]

Your company's results may vary. Every restructuring has a unique combination of issues and factors, including the length of participation in the program. All of these variables affect individual outcomes. There are no "typical" results. Debts may increase until a resolution is reached. Until a debt is resolved, creditors may continue with their collection efforts, including phone calls and legal action. CT does not provide any legal services or legal advice. There are no time limits for reaching settlements. Some creditors may settle after CT's first set of offers, and others may be resolved later on.
