

COMEBACK STORY OF THE MONTH

August 2020

During these extremely dark times, with many businesses closing their doors due to this terrible pandemic we are all living through, I received a phone call from my old business partner Adam [REDACTED] that really brightened up my day. Life has been pretty hard around these parts the last few months, and this call really lifted me up and made me focus on the brighter days ahead.

I have been working with Adam and his company Corporate Turnaround for close to 3 years now and he called to tell me some bittersweet news: it was time for us to go our separate ways. Together we have successfully navigated my small company out of what seemed like an insurmountable debt load to having it all paid off in a relatively short period of time. Unbelievable was all I could think of at the time.

About 3 years ago I never thought I would see this day and was on the verge of hanging it all up. I found CT on the internet and thought I would give them or another similar firm a chance to see if they could save me. Thank god I went with CT! I felt right at home from day 1 and worked with their team of professionals through thick and thin. Through every ridiculous threat that came my way, through the tough financial times they happened throughout, we stuck together to see this thing through. I can now prepare for much brighter days financially and I would like to send all the thanks in the world to CT! They really knocked it out of the park for my business and family.

I will miss speaking to Adam but know he is just a phone call away if needed. So good bye for now...but not forever. THANKS!

Your company's results may vary. Every restructuring has a unique combination of issues and factors, including the length of participation in the program. All of these variables affect individual outcomes. There are no "typical" results. There are no time limits for reaching settlements. Some creditors may settle after CT's first set of offers, and others may be resolved later on.
