Dear Corporate Turnaround,

First of all I would like to say thank you to [REDACTED] who is our Client Advocate. He has worked hard and always been there when we had any questions or concerns.

My husband and I started our business [REDACTED] in July of 2007. We transport heavy equipment from one destination to the other. We are a small company there is only a total of 3 of us. When we started out in 2007 we had to take out many business loans, credit cards, and equipment loans to get our business going. We were doing very well at first but then the economy started slumping and construction work started to slow down. We soon realized that we couldn't make even the minimum payment on some of the debt and our interest rates started to sky rocket from being late.

My husband and I have always been hard workers and knew that we would work 24/7 before we would even think about bankruptcy. Even working all the hours we did it didn't matter our debt was not going down seemed to just get worse with the high interest rates we were getting charged.

At the end of 2009 I started shopping around trying to get bank loans to help us restructure our debt and to get lower interest rates even tried getting a government loan to help our business but we were turned down every time. Finally, I was told by gentlemen at the government office to call a company named Corporate Turnaround that they help restructure and negotiate with creditors to help small businesses that are struggling. I have always been leery of debt restructuring places you always here bad things about places like these so after talking it over with my husband we decided it might be our only hope.

In February of 2010 I talked to a gentleman named [REDACTED] at Corporate Turnaround still leery of the situation but tried to keep an open mind. After our conversation that must have been over an hour he made me feel like he and his team would do everything they could to help our business and get us back on our feet. I felt very good with our conversation and it felt like a huge weight was lifted off my shoulders. I then had a phone call from [REDACTED] who was assigned to our file as our Client Advocate and he also let me know that he would be there every step of the way for any questions and concerns and he did just that.

Now it is December 2012 and after almost 2 years Corporate Turnaround has done what they promised negotiated with our 6 creditors, put us on a payment plan we could afford, and now as of this month we have paid off the debt that was at one time over $71,000.00. We would just like to say thank you to Corporate Turnaround and all the employees that helped us out we couldn't have done it without them.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]
